

QUIVER DISTRIBUTION PICKS UP NORTH AMERICAN RIGHTS TO ALEXANDRA SHIPP, NICOLAS HAMILTON AND FAMKE JANSSEN STARRER “ENDLESS”

The Summerstorm, Thunder Road, Minds Eye Production to be Released this Summer

Los Angeles, CA (June 17, 2020) – Quiver Distribution announced today that they have acquired North American rights to romantic drama Endless starring Alexandra Shipp (Love, Simon, X-Men franchise), Nicholas Hamilton (It, Captain Fantastic), Famke Janssen (X-Men franchise, Taken franchise) and DeRon Horton (“Dear White People,” Roman J. Israel, Esq.).

Endless follows love struck high school graduates Riley (Alexandra Shipp) and Chris (Nicholas Hamilton). When they are separated by a tragic car accident, Riley blames herself for her boyfriend’s death while Chris is stranded in limbo. Miraculously, the two find a way to connect. In a love story that transcends life and death, both Riley and Chris are forced to learn the hardest lesson of all: letting go.

Gabriela Bacher of Film House Germany’s Summerstorm Entertainment produced alongside Basil Iwanyk and Erica Lee of Thunder Road Films and Sean Finegan of Hyper Media Ventures. They are joined by Canadian producing partner Kevin DeWalt of Minds Eye Entertainment who brought Calgary-based investment fund manager Invico Capital Corporation on board through one of their privately managed funds, the Invico Diversified Income Fund. M2 MediaPost introduced Twickenham Studios to the production and provided post production financing.

“We are thrilled to be working with the talented team behind Endless,” said Quiver co-president Berry Meyerowitz. “The film beautifully captures the incredible chemistry between Alexandra and Nicholas, supported by wonderful performances of Famke as Chris’ mother and DeRon as his best friend on the Other Side, and we are excited to share this story with their many fans.”

The deal was negotiated by ICM Partners on behalf of the filmmakers and Quiver’s Larry Greenberg. Radiant Films International is handling foreign sales.

Quiver Distribution recently released the action thriller Becky, starring Lulu Wilson, Kevin James and Joel McHale, which led the box office in its opening weekend and expanded through an innovative drive-in release strategy.

###

About Quiver Distribution

Quiver Distribution is the new distribution entity launched by passionate film industry entrepreneurs Berry Meyerowitz and Jeff Sackman. Quiver’s mandate is to collaborate with content creators to source and exploit commercial films in the U.S., Canada and International markets.